GOODBYE JOE

Councilman Fowright Resigns And Leaves Town.

Vacancy Will Be Filled By Council at Some Future Meeting.

Councilman Joe N. Fowright, of the Seventh ward, has placed his resignation in the hands of Mayor Dabney and has moved to Madisonville to make his home. This action was taken about three weeks ago, and Mr. Fowright several days ago removed with his family to his new home. Under the charter and constitution a vacancy occurring within less than 90 days of the next ensuing election is to be filled by the council itself and so the new councilman for the Seventh ward will be elected when the council meets.

At the regular meeting Friday night no quorum was present. Mr. West is absent in Colorado. Mr. Fritz was not at home and Mr. Tibbs was unable to be present. This left only three members in attendance and the meeting was postponed until the mayor issues a call. By agreement of all parties this will not be done until both Mr. Fritz and Mr. West can be present.

The name most frequently mentioned for the vacancy is that of Mr. J. H. Eggleton. In the primary election Fowright was nominated by two votes over Eggleton and after being elected changed his politics and has since affiliated with the Republicans. The Seventh ward is reliably Democratic and will no doubt be represented by a Democrat for the rest of the term with the consent of all the councilmen. As the council now stands there are 3 Democrats and 3 of the opposition, with the Democratic mayor holding the deciding vote in case of a tie.

It may be that the council meeting will be held Friday night, if Mr. West returns in time.

BACKED OFF BLUFF.

Team Killed And Owner Had Narrow Escape.

Mr. W. A. Clark, a young farmer living about five miles South of the city, happened to a peculiar accident one day last week.

He was driving a loaded wagon along near the banks of the East Fork of Little River, when one of his horses balked and the outfit was backed over the cliff, landing in the stream. One horse was instantly killed and the other had a leg broken and will probably have to be shot. The wagon was badly damaged and Mr. Clark, who jumped from the vehicle, had a very narrow escape with his life. The load of wheat went down in the water, but was saved.

RUSSELL'S CASE.

Eddyville Minister to Be Tried Before His Presiding Elder.

The case of Rev. L. M. Russell, of Eddyville, who surrendered his credentials as a minister to the conference just closed at Elizabethtown, by reason of charges in circulation about him which affect his standing as a minister, has been referred for trial before the presiding elder of his district, the Rev. J. W. Bingham. The charges are to the effect that the husband of a certain woman intercepted a letter to his wife, and which he did not think was the proper kind of a letter for a minister and a married man to address to the wife of another man. The letter, it is said, will be produced in evidence. The fact that Mr. Russell has surrendered his credentials will not prevent the trial of the case, according to the rules of Methodist discipline. —Paducah Sun.

WILL DRAFT MEN

Before Two Years For Philippine War, Soldier Predicts.

William Whetstone, Corporal of Company F, Forty-third United States Volunteers, writing home from the town of Alangalang, P. I., makes the following statement:

"Sergeant Overly and I went out with a detachment of 12 men yesterday and ran into 100 or more insurgents. We captured four and brought them in. We kept these prisoners only because we wanted them to work and to get what information we could from them. These are the only prisoners we have taken except one, and the Captain had us shoot him. We can't take care of them.

"If the United States doesn't look out it will have more than it can handle. They will be drafting men before the next two years. They will have to have about 30,000 for these islands between now and the 30th of next June, as our time is out then. Then we will come home and read about the other fellows a while.

A Chinese Opinion.

Our Chinese Minister, Wu Ting Fang, gives in Frank Leslie's Monthly for September a fine argument in favor of the wage-earning woman. He says:

"No foreigner in America fails to be impressed with the importance of the role women play in this country. Their activity in the social and business world gives certain subtle qualities to American life not found where the influence of women is less generally and definitely exerted. It seemed to me once that there was danger of woman usurping man's place in the world. I have come to think that it does not much matter if she does. I believe in the survival of the fittest. Success, surely, is the only test of fitness. Let the woman go on then; let them go as far as they can. Those who are unfit for the race will fall by the wayside and only the truly fit can win. If women encroach on the vocations of men, then the men, if they are worth their salt, must forge far ahead, that there was danger of woman usurping man's place in the world."

China is said to be the most conservative country in the world, but for progressiveness and profound philosophy the utterance of our Chinese ambassador is hard to surpass. Would that he might for a brief period drop his role of ambassador and become a missionary to that large and distinguished class of Americans who pride themselves on their learning, culture and statesmanship, but who are so deep in the backwoods that they have not discovered this elementary truth, that woman's advancement means advancement for the world. Woman's educational advancement means the educational advancement of the world, woman's social advancement means the social advancement of the world; woman's industrial advancement means the industrial advancement of the world; woman's political advancement means the political advancement of the world. Here is the whole "woman question" in a nut-shell.

HAS FAITH IN BRYAN.

Indian Territory Man Bets Fifty Thousand on Him.

Port Worth, Tex., Oct. 3.—One of the largest political wagers yet made in the South was concluded at Rush Springs, I. T., yesterday, between two of the most prominent stock men in the Territory. They are A. Levens and John Davis. The former bet $50,000 that W. J. Bryan would be elected the next President of the United States. As soon as the wager was finished both men went to Chickasha, where the money was deposited, subject to draft according to the provisions of the bet. The wager caused the greatest excitement among the people of Rush Springs.

RAILWAYS IN THE AIR.

Remarkable Progress Made in Construction of Mountain Lines.

No branch of engineering has probably made such rapid strides within the last quarter of a century as the construction of mountain railways. Indeed, many of them could be described as new wonders of the world.

The railway built over the famous White pass, the gateway to the Klondike, during the summer of 1898, was a marvel of engineering skill. It is known as the White Pass & Yukon railway, and commences at Skagway. There is a railway journey of 20 miles till the summit of the pass is reached, over 2,850 feet above the level of the sea. An interesting fact about this unique railway was the quick time in which it was built. During the latter part of the summer of 1898 two shifts of men were employed on the line, and on February 20, 1899, the first passenger train steamed into the little station at the summit, which was almost buried in snow. The track for 20 miles is hewn out of the solid rock. The cost of this short line is estimated to have been about $1,250,000. A few weeks ago a sensation was caused in Skagway by the foolhardy feat of a miner, who rode down the railway on one of the buffers of the engine.

The railway constructed up the famous Pike's peak in Colorado, is another marvelous engineering feat. The railway itself reaches a height of 14,134 feet. On the top of this mountain a unique paper is brought out by a journalist and his wife during the summer months. It is called the Pike's Peak Daily, and is nothing more or less than a record of the number of visitors who ascend the mountain by the railway, together with their names and addresses. The editorial office is in the open air. It is undoubtedly the highest newspaper office in the world, being over 14,000 feet above the sea.

There is a unique rope railway in Hong-Kong which virtually carries passengers through the air. The ropes are carried up a mountain by tall trestles set a great distance apart. The carriages, which are suspended from the wire ropes carry six men. At one place this unique railway passes over a reservoir. The object of the line is to transfer European workmen at the end of their day's work to a sanatorium, at a high level above the sea, to escape fever. The speed obtained is eight miles an hour. The line has been in use for several years, and has given complete satisfaction. There is another marvelous aerial rope railway in Spain used for transporting building material and workmen up a mountain. The incline is exceedingly steep, being one in one and a half, and the longest span is 1,100 feet. It is a novel sight to watch the cars on these rope railways running up the sides of the mountain, suspended from an unseen wire or rope.

The recent construction of a railway from Mollendo, a port on the Pacific side of South America, to Puno, on Lake Titicaca, is regarded as a most wonderful engineering feat. Lake Titicaca is the highest navigable lake in the world, being about 13,000 feet above the level of the sea, among the stupendous Andes of Peru. From a geological point of view it is the most marvelous lake yet discovered.

The line, known as the Southern railway of Peru, is carried in a most wonderful manner among precipices, chasms, valleys, etc. The viaducts are magnificent constructions, and the heavy cuttings are considered to be great achievements of engineering skill. At one place the track, which is a single one, winds across a dreary sandy plain. From the railway passenger can see the great burning mountain, Misti, 18,650 feet high. It is here that the highest point reached by the modern locomotive is attained, viz, at Galeria, 15,635 feet above the level of the sea. A steamer built by a firm of shipbuilders in Scotland, of over 500 tons weight, was recently transported in parts over this remarkable line and successfully rebuilt and launched on the highest navigable lake in the world.

For novel attractions and scenery Mr. Lowe railway, in southern California, undoubtedly takes the palm. The railway commences at Pasadena. By an ingenious cable incline, 3,000 feet in length, an ascent of over 1,300 feet is made to a large hotel on the mountain side. From here there is an extension line, called the "Alpine division," which climbs the mountain in an ingenious fashion until an altitude of 5,000 feet is reached.

But it is the attractions on Mt. Lowe which makes it a fashionable resort of the elite of southern California. The scenery is magnificent; on one side of the mountain is the Pacific, and on the other a limitless stretch of beautiful country.

One of the chief attractions is a mammoth searchlight. It rests at an altitude of 3,500 feet above sea level. It is so powerful that its rays can be seen for 150 miles, and a newspaper can be read by its light 35 miles away. It is of 9,000,000 candle power, and weighs 6,000 pounds. Another interesting attraction on this wonderful mountain and its unique railway is an observatory, familiarly termed "The Lighthouse of the Sky."

It contains one of the largest and most powerful telescopes in the world, and visitors up the railway are permitted to peep at the heavens through it. The instrument can boast of quite an astronomical record, having discovered seven comets and over 1,000 nebulae. In addition to this there is a large observatory, where the animals do not mention other attractions. Indeed, Mr. Lowe railway and its list of wonderful attractions should be able to satisfy the most fastidious of mountain tourists.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A GIGANTIC EGG.

Measured Nearly a Meter in Circumference and Sold for $275.

England is the country where the culture of objects, rare and original, be their nature, their use, their destination or their historic role is preserved traditionally and religiously. So the owners of remarkable things go to London, where there is some chance of meeting admiring amateurs.

The past winter there was sold in London an egg measuring nearly a meter in circumference. It brought the respectable price of $275!

What is the race of birds capable of producing such a phenomenon? The ostrich, which furnishes eggs of a wonderful size, equaling about 25 chicken eggs, is the largest specimen of living birds. The wonder could not attain six times its size.

This gigantic egg was produced by a bird, to-day disappeared, to which was given the name epyornis. It was brought from Madagascar, where there had already been found, some 40 years ago, some bones, and the remains of eggs belonging to this extinct species.

The body of this bird had certainly nothing comparable with that of our existing birds, if we judge by the bones found. However, we must not judge by the form of the egg of that of the animal which produced it. Often birds of very different form lay eggs of equal size.

The chalky covering is much thicker than in the eggs of birds of small shape. It attains to three millimeters. The thickness of the shell is generally in keeping with the habits of the bird, according as the eggs are deposited on the sand or in a soft nest. The total contents is about nine liters.

In the middle ages ostrich eggs were used to make cups, goblets or vases finely carved. They were mounted on a pedestal of richly carved metal. Some have been found in the inventories of the kings of France. The rareness of the eggs of the ostrich determined the price. To-day these eggs, without being abundant, circulate in commerce; their value thus has considerably diminished.

The egg of the epyornis lent itself wonderfully to this kind of decoration. With its dimensions and the thickness of its shell it rivaled the most precious vases of ancient and modern ceramics, for it permitted artists to realize the most beautiful subjects, and at the same time to give size and development to a vast artistic conception.

Madagascar seems to be the country where lived the last survivors of this race of birds. A legend attributes a carnivorous nature to it, and says that it would even attack a herd of cattle to satisfy its hunger.—N. Y. Journal.

Four Country for Voices.

The low-lying level of Lincolnshire is accountable for a curious difficulty at Stamford, namely, the absence of boys with rich voices. The influence of a hilly environment in developing singing talent has long been well known, and even in the middle ages it was not uncommon for boys to be sent from the highlands of Scotland to supply the treble and alto in continental cathedrals.—Washington Star.

Squirrels Destroy Crops.

Sheep roaming over the hills in Morgan and Summit counties, Idaho, have stamped swarms of squirrels from their usual haunts, and the rodents have descended on the farmers' crops of cereals and vegetables.

Gov. Beckham speaks at Eddyville Oct. 17 and efforts are being made to have him speak here while in this end of the State.

The coolest treatment shown any speaker was accorded Mark Hanna in Chicago the other night, when some one threw a cake of ice at his head while he was making a speech.

Owing to illness Judge J. E. Robbins has been compelled to cancel his appointment for this city to-day. The Democrats will have a club rally at Headquarters to-night and several speeches will be made by local campaigners.

Senator Blackburn made his first speech of the campaign at Owensboro yesterday. He will speak at Henderson to-day and Paducah to-morrow. He has fully regained his health and will be heard on the stump here and in other states until the election.

Dr. Walter T. Roberts is the socialist Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky this year. His name on the ballot will be under the device of a flaming torch. F. L. Robinson is the same party's candidate for Congress in the Fifth district.

TEDDY, THE TERRIBLE.

Gov. Roosevelt spent Sunday at Chicago, talking over campaign plans with Hanna and other Republicans. He has taken the road and is now making a tour through Illinois to St. Louis. He will remain at St. Louis until Wednesday and then visit Kentucky. In his swing around the circle he will touch Hopkinsville next Saturday about 10:30 o'clock. As most of the followers of the Rough Rider in this county are colored, it will be of interest to the negroes to know what Teddy thinks of them and of their race in battle. In a magazine article in 1899 Col. Roosevelt, in telling how he won the battle of San Juan Hill, made this serious charge against the colored soldiers engaged in that battle:

"None of the white regulars or Rough Riders showed the slightest sign of weakening, but under the strain the colored infantrymen began to get a little uneasy and drift to the rear. * * * So I jumped up and, walking a few yards to the rear, drew my revolver, halted the retreating soldiers and called out to them that I would shoot the first man who, on any pretense whatever, went to the rear. This was the end of the trouble for the smoked Yankees."

"The same vain-glorious boaster, who says he shot a fleeing Spaniard in the back, also expressed this opinion of state and national volunteers in an official communication from Santiago July 23, 1898: "We earnestly hope that you will send us most of the regulars, and at any rate, the cavalry division, including the Rough Riders—who are as good as regulars and three times as good as any State troops—to Porto Rico. * * * We could land at Porto Rico in this cavalry division close to 4,000 men who would be worth easily any 10,000 national guards, armed with black powder, Springfield or other archaic weapons."

This slander also comes home to the gallant soldier boys from this city, who flew to arms at the first call for volunteers. There was no politics in their patriotism, but Republicans and Democrats alike took up arms for their country. Some went to Porto Rico, some to Cuba, some to the Philippines and still others were kept in disease-breeding camps in the South. Among those who gave up their lives were some of the sons of the Republican leaders of Hopkinsville, who have grown gray in the service of the Republican party. What must they think of this brutal attack upon the courage and honor of their dead soldier boys, because they did not happen to be broncho busters?

Democrats are raising their estimates for the Second district—Union, Henderson and Davies—promise 5,000 majority and Webster, Hopkins and McLean will add about 2,000 more. Hancock is counted a stand-off and Christian is expected to give a small Republican majority. Bryan's majority in 1896 was nearly 6,200 and this time the old Second must do still better. Just what the First and Second districts will vote out that 16,000 Republican majority in the Eleventh and have votes to spare.

Mr. Bryan spent Sunday with relatives at Salem, Ill., the place of his birth. He spent the afternoon visiting scenes of his boyhood, and at night attended church. He spoke at Salem early yesterday morning and then left on his tour of Illinois.

Eczema

How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales!
 Some people call it tetter, milk crust or salt rheum.
 The suffering from it is sometimes intense; local applications are resorted to—they mitigate, but cannot cure.
 It proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Several More Good Clubs Organized in the County.

Jas. B. Allensworth will address the Haddock's School House club next Friday night, by special invitation.

Mr. W. R. Howell spoke at Princeton Friday night and at Owensboro Saturday night. At both places he had packed houses and created great enthusiasm.

Messrs. C. H. Bush and D. R. Perry filled an appointment at Haddock's School House Saturday night and Mr. Bush made a rattling fine campaign speech, at the conclusion of which a club of 28 members was organized. Mr. Perry reports that one of the voters who joined the club was a Republican who took of a Yerkes button and threw it away. Ben C. Foster is President of the club.

Congressman Allen had a fine crowd at Bainbridge Thursday night and made a splendid and telling speech. It was most enthusiastically received in that staunch Democratic district and after the speaking Col. Joett Henry, who went with him, organized a big club. The club started out with more than 50 members and the membership will be increased to 100 before the election.

One of the best meetings Mr. Allen had last week was in the Republican stronghold of Crofton, where he addressed on Friday a crowd of 150 voters. Many of them were Democrats from out in the country who quit their work to attend the meeting and they gave the popular Congressman a rousing reception. After the speaking, a club of 50 members was organized with W. H. Martin, President, Geo. H. Myers, vice-President, and John H. Myers, Secretary. The club will meet every Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m.

House Probably Burglarized And Then Set on Fire.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning P'Pool & Davis' saloon on West Seventh street was discovered in flames and the building was soon gutted. Members of the fire department were on hand in a few minutes after the alarm was turned in and succeeded in preventing a spread of the flames. The fire started near the center of the building and it is thought the house was burglarized and set on fire.

P'Pool & Davis estimate their loss at about $2,000. They had $1,500 insurance with Higgins & Son. The building is owned by Mr. W. T. Williamson, and was damaged probably to the extent of about $500. Mr. Williamson is fully insured.

The Schumann Grand Concert Company Delights a Goldsboro Audience.

CASTORIA.

"Mint in the Cuisine," is the leading article in the October number of Table Talk. It gives the various uses that can be made of mint with many new recipes. It will be of interest to practical housewives. "Rich White Cake and Other Mixtures, with Remarks on Baking Them," is another excellent article with much new information about cake making that will be welcomed. An article on "Our Native Nuts," tells all about them. "Vacation Reminiscences" is timely and valuable to mothers especially. A very interesting series of articles is running in Table Talk, entitled "The Story of the Months." It gives this issue the history, custom both ancient and modern proverbs, and superstitions of October. Other good articles are "Around the Mahogany," "The Reign of Fruits," "The Child World," "The Daily Menu and How to Follow Them," and the answers to "Housekeepers' Inquiries." Table Talk is pre-eminently the housekeeper's magazine, for it teaches the art of good cooking and of wise and economical living. Free sample copies of a recent issue will be sent to any of our readers on request of Table Talk Publishing Co., Philadelphia.

Gentlemen:—I feel it my duty to express to you my gratitude for what your weekly paper has done for me. I was completely run down with a complication of stomach disorders. For ten months I could not work and was treated by three eminent physicians. One insisted upon operating on me, declaring nothing short of an operation for appendicitis would cure me. A friend induced me to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and from the first dose I began to improve and have not had any more trouble since I have gained 25 pounds in weight and am enjoying the very best of health. I never fail to say a good word for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for I know what it has done for me it will do for others. Gratefully yours,

and He Will Make Pilgrimage to Tomb.

Baltimore, Oct. 4.—That he may make a pilgrimage to the tomb of Jesus Christ at Jerusalem and be there in time for his second coming, is the strange reason why Francis L. Favour resigned his position today as clerk in the Baltimore Post-office.

Mr. Favour proposes to give up all that he has and start to Palestine, and after the manner of Christ will start on foot and preach along the way.

Mr. Favour is about 46 years old, tall, slender and ascetic in habit and appearance. He is known to many, as for years he has preached the gospel on the streets in the evenings and on Sunday. Mr. Favour's home is in Sykesville, Md.

Francis L. Favour was appointed a clerk under the Civil Service law under Postmaster Johnson when quite young, and has been considered one of the most efficient men in the service. For a long time he has been planning and talking over his pilgrimage to Jerusalem to his fellow clerks, and today came the report that he had resigned and would start soon. As Favour outlines his plans he will start West on foot, St. Louis being his first objective point. From there he will go to the Pacific Coast, and thence by steamer to China and India and so on to Palestine, doing missionary work all along the way. He hopes to reach Jerusalem before Christ's second coming, which he believes, with many others, to be not far distant.

PROPERTY OWNERS

And Shippers Will Not Abandon Galveston, Texas.

A correspondent writing from Galveston, Texas, gives a good idea of the condition of affairs there now and the prospects for the future.

In part he says: "All property on the island is more or less damaged, windows broken, roofs, porches, &c. Some part of them injured. Most all houses here are elevated six to ten feet above the ground. There are no cellars, as the island is all sand. The papers don't begin to tell you how bad it is. It just picked up every building within three to ten blocks of the beach, smashed them into kindling wood and threw it into a solid wall along the whole front of the houses that are left standing and from 10 to 20 feet high. In fact, this finally acted as a protection to the city; the waves spent their force on it and saved the other houses. Everybody says the whole city would have gone in another hour. Mechanics are coming in fast and getting from $5 to $7 per day. Common labor is getting $2 per day. People are living in all imaginable ways. There are 2,400 men working on the debris, and they found 28 bodies Saturday, and will continue to find them for some time to come. It took 500 men one week to get a wagon through one block at the Garter Verein, a beautiful resort, that all the best people belonged to, that is in the ruins. Those who can will leave the city, but the property holders and shippers will stay. It is a great port and will continue to be."

FIRST STRIKE

For Lower Wages Ever Made,
Perhaps—Miners Won

Owensboro, Ky., October 4.—The striking miners at Baskett won their strike for recognition of the union, carrying with it a reduction of their wages. T. C. Blair, former owner of the coal mines, never recognized the union, but paid wages averaging five cents more than the union schedule. The union has been recognized and the Pittsburgh scale signed. This is probably the first strike for lower wages ever made.

The baby's coming is often looked forward to as a time of dread and danger, but any woman who is physically and mentally sound will find it a time of ease and comfort. They are sick and weak.

During the period of gestation every woman should use every means to strengthen the organs that are to be tried. They should be kept in perfect health. The faintest symptom of disorder or disease should be promptly eliminated.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is designed to do this very thing—has been doing it for over thirty years. It is the one sure medicine for all female complaints. It is the only medicine that may be absolutely depended upon to quickly relieve the pain and danger of childbirth. It is the only preparation of its kind that is the invention of a regularly graduated physician—skilled and experienced specialist in the cure of diseases of women.

Dr. J. C. F. Favour, of Dorset, Ontario, Can., writes: "I was in very poor health for a long time, dating from the birth of my little girl. I tried different doctors and different medicines, I took four bottles of your Favorite Prescription and seem to be perfectly well again."

RED HOT RACE.

Colored School Trustee Elected Saturday.

One school trustee in each colored district of the State was elected Saturday. The election in the Hopkinsville district provoked a red hot contest between Jas. L. Allensworth, Jr., the present incumbent, and Peter Postell, Jr. The contest was fiercely waged from 1 p.m. until night, the poll being open in the school building. The election was by open ballot and the result was in doubt until the close. Postell received 329 votes and Allensworth 310. The defeated trustee is a son of the county coroner and Postell is a son of Peter Postell, Sr., the wealthiest colored man in Western Kentucky.
